

The Easter Sunday Celebration

Christian throughout the world celebrated Easter Sunday on 31st March 2013. Easter Sunday is the culmination of Holy Week and it is the most important Christian festival and the one celebrated with the greatest joy.

At the St. Thomas' Cathedral Kuching, the Anglican congregation attended the 6.45am mass with over a thousand members thronging the church hall up to the gate.

The Archbishop of the Province of South East Asia, the Most Revd. Datuk Bolly Lapok graced the occasion and delivered his sermon from the Gospel of St. Luke 24:1-12.
